

KING COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT FAMILY COURT SERVICES

CONFIDENTIAL INTERMEDIARY ("C.I.") LIST

PURPOSE

This Confidential Intermediary ("C.I.") list, which is below, was compiled by King County Superior Court from the group of applicants who have completed the application process and from whom all required documentation has been received.

Family Court Services supplied that documentation to the King County Superior Court Judges Sealed Adoptive File Committee for review. The purpose of the list is to provide to the public opportunities to select independent C.I.s who have met minimum qualifications for that role. To inquire about C.I. status, call the adoption paralegal at (206) 477-1493.

IMMUNITY

King County Superior Court has reviewed the credentials of the agencies and individuals on the list for compliance with state and local standards to serve as C.I.s. There is no supervisory or contractual relationship between the C.I. and King County Superior Court.

Neither King County Superior Court, nor its employees, assumes any responsibility or liability for the actions of any person for injury or damage caused by or resulting from the actions of a C.I. selected from the following list. Nor does being on this list relieve from or lessen the responsibility or liability of the C.I. or supervising agency, for injury or damage resulting from work performed by the C.I.

COMPLAINTS

A person may submit a written complaint regarding a C.I. Specify the conduct and grounds for the complaint. Sanctions available to the Court for inappropriate conduct by a C.I. include removal from the King County Superior Court C.I. List. Submit complaints to:
